

Dr. J. L. Beeson
City

The Colonnade

VOLUME III.

GEORGIA STATE COLLEGE FOR WOMEN, MILLEDGEVILLE, GA., NOVEMBER 24, 1927

NUMBER 5.

G. S. C. W. Is Assured New Dormitory

Junior Class Plans Alumnae Banquet

Banquet To Be Held At Baldwin Hotel

On November the twenty-fifth, at eight fifteen o'clock in the Baldwin Hotel, the Junior class Reunion banquet will be held. At this time many of the former members of the class are expected to be present.

Miss Cleo Jenkins president of the class, will act as toastmistress. Miss Mary Jane Parker, president of the class for the past two years will address and toast the girls who have returned to the campus. Following this, toasts will be given to Dr. J. L. Beeson, by Miss Selma Sherrer, vice-president of the class and to Mrs. J. L. Beeson by Miss Edith Bryant, secretary of the class. Then the class song will be sung, followed by a toast to the college, by Miss Caroline Cheney and one to a greater G. S. C. W., by Miss Laura Lee Gibson, class treasurer.

Then there will be music by the Junior class Glee club. After which, Dr. Beeson will speak. The program will close by singing the Alma Mater. The menu and decorations will carry out the Thanksgiving idea.

The class members who are to attend the banquet are: Pauline Abbat, Eva Alderman, Christine Babb, Dorothy Banks, Mabel Burnhart, Sara Blount, Ruby Bolton, Lila Boswell, Clara Brake, Eleanor Brannen, Leila Mae Brooks, Lanora Bruce, Edith Bryan, Hallie Bryan, Leila Bryan, Lucile Canniffax, Frances Carlton, Mary Carson, Vernet Chafin, Caroline Cheney, Frances Christie, Pearl Clark, Ruby Clark, Florence Cobb, Nelle Combs, Sara Connell, Mary Frances Cowan, Carrie Frank Crute, Grace Dancer, Beatrice Dobbins, Lucile Dunnaway, Majorie Dunnaway, Celeste Durden, Cora Eberhart, Irma Everett, Nell Fisher, Ruth Flite, Ludwina Garrett, Laura Lee Gibson, Frances Gill, Odessa Gillis, Delta Grant, Mary E. Grey, Elizabeth Gwinn, Emogene Hall, Florine Hammett, Lucie Harding, Genevieve Hargroves, Estelle Harriss, Jessie Harriss, Nancy Heard, Elizabeth Hearn, Ethel Herring, Mrs. Nina Way Holiman, Frances Holmes, Mary Houser, Louise Humphrey, Margaret Ivey, Cleo Jenkins, Jessie Sibley Jennings, Neva Jones, Sara Kitchens, Susie Lanier, Bob Lashley, Lillie Leary, Dorothy Little, Margaret Lumpkin, Mary E. McClure, Eudora McClaine, Elise McCrary, Marie McCulloch, Anabel McLendon, Vivian McLendon, Gladys McMichael, Mary Belle McMillan, Edna McMullen, Sara Ruth Mallard, Sally Ruth Meadors, Sara Middlebrook, Frances Moore, Juanita Moore, Pauline Clyde Morgan, Myrtle Morris, Julia Muse, Evelyn Nelson, Eleanor Oliff, Dorothy Park, Roberta Parris, Martha Penech, Kathleen Pound, Gladys Procter, Mary Ruby,

Cleo Jenkins Extends Welcome To Alumnae

Thanksgiving Day is coming! How thankful are the hearts of the girls on our campus! Some are wondering why our class is happier than the others—why the Junior's step is a little lighter, her voice a little gayer, her smile a little broader, and her heart a little gladder. Cease from your wondering and remember that to our class this Thanksgiving season is bringing back many of our last year classmates.

To you former class mates we would say: Welcome back, oh classmates, Back to our college home. Our thanks for your return Rise to the mighty dome.

CLEO JENKINS, Pres. Jr. Class.

Many Alumnae Upholding Reputation of G. S. C. W.

Miss Estelle R. Parker, Hawkinsville, Georgia, graduated from the college in 1907; she was the second girl to receive a diploma in Home Economics here. She taught in the District Agricultural School immediately after leaving college. Later she was District Agent at the State College of Agriculture, at Athens and in extension work for a period of years. For some time now she has been Food Service Director in the Y. W. C. A. in Washington, D. C.

Miss Ray Mitchell of the class of 1911 is a Regional Director of the girls Scouts in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mrs. William M. Miller, formerly Miss Nan Barksdale of class of 1895, and teacher of English at G. S. C. W. is past president of the P. T. A. in Georgia and active in the G. S. C. W. club in Miami, Florida.

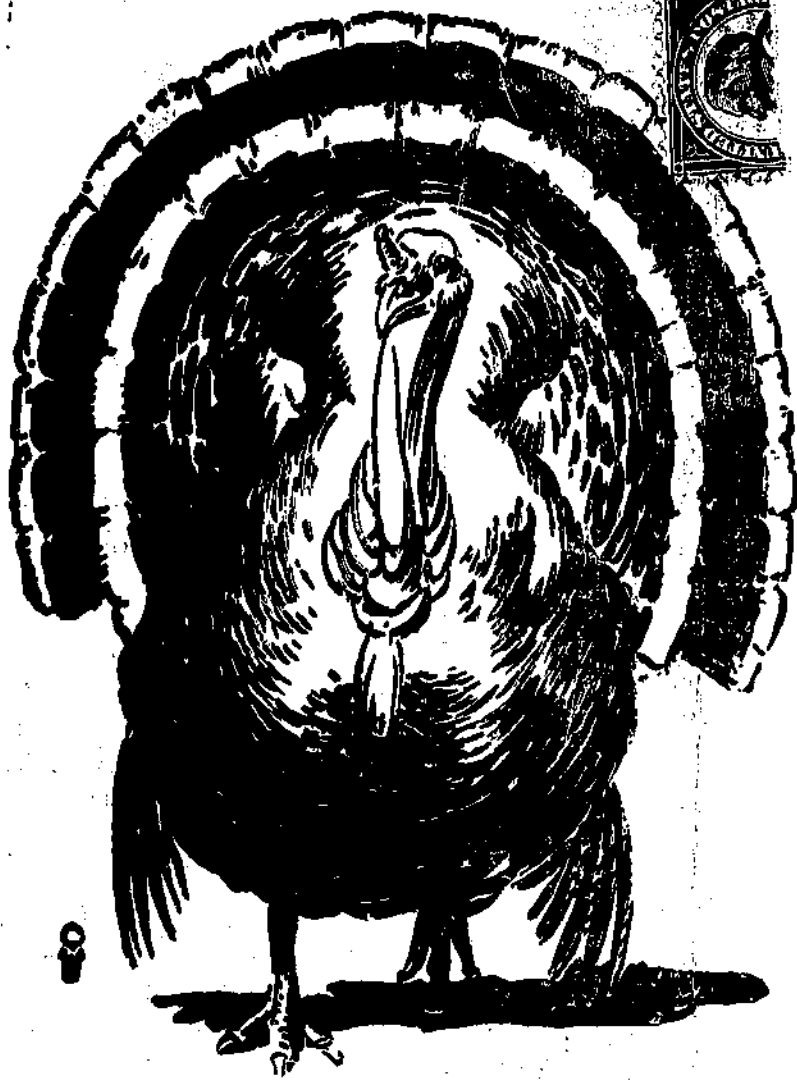

Miss Annie Mae Glenn of Americus, Ga., is a dietician in the Battle Creek Sanitarium, Battle Creek, Michigan.

Miss Cecile Humphrey '23 is doing Health Work at the Georgia State Sanitarium.

Miss Lurline Parker, '2 and Miss Caro Lane '24 are doing extension work for the college in connection with the State Department of Education.

(Continued on back page.)

Frankie Raines, Martha E. Rouch, Frances Raner, Frances Elizabeth Reese, Louise Reeves, Ruth Roark, Florence Rogers, Faye Sessions, Charlotte Shelnut, Selma Sherrer, Annie C. Smith, Oron Smith, Louise Stanford, Doris Steed, Elise Stone, Dorothy Thaxton, Marie Tucker, Mrs. Katherine Greer Tunnell, Ruby Vandiner, Charlotte Wallace, Katherine Weaver, Mattie Belle West, Mary Williams, Ruby Wright, Christine Wynne.

Thanksgiving Greetings

Popular Seniors Chosen In Work Is Done By G. S. C. W. Who's Who

The who's who election of the Senior class held November 21 resulted in the following choices.

Miss G. S. C. W. (from entire student body.)—Mary Jane Parker. Prettiest—Laurie Hendrickson. Wittiest—Margaret Hightower. Most intellectual—Harlowe Thompson.

Most Capable—Marguerite Jackson.

Most athletic—Virginia Arnold. Most popular—Wynelle Otwell. Most Stylish—Rosalind Mason. Happiest—Lucile Scroggins. Most Attractive—Eleanor Ennis. Best all round—Mary Jane Parker.

Most Original—Mae Evans.

The votes for this election were cast by the entire student body. Great interest and enthusiasm were manifested.

The election was held for the purpose of selecting those girls, who

Welcome

In behalf of the student body, the faculty and the Colonnade staff I wish to welcome to our campus the former wearers of the brown and white. Every thing is open to you; the girls are all anxious to do just one small duty that your stay may be made more pleasant. Notice the growth and progress that has been made by the loyal support of the Alumnae. Then know that our hearts swell with pride and patriotism as we see throngs of you on our campus, and we wish that you might feel that it is in this spirit.

The Colonnade extends to you a welcome.

—MARGUERITE CLARK
Editor-in-Chief.

G. S. C. W. students who are doing, or have done work on the foreign field are:

Miss Marie Crawford of the class of 1901 was a teacher sent by the Southern Methodist Board to Havana, Cuba, until her death.

Miss Laurie Smith, class 1905, now Mrs. J. T. William, has done missionary work in Canton, China, sent by the Southern Baptist Board.

Miss Sara Brinkley, class of 1907, was sent as a teacher to China by the Southern Methodist Board.

Miss Marie Raffa, of 1911, is training teachers in the Luara Haygood Normal School, Soochow, China, sent by the Southern Methodist Board.

Miss May Perry, of class of 1912, was sent by Southern Baptist Board as a teacher in girls' school Arbo Rita, Nigeria, West Africa.

Miss Mary Searcy, of 1912, was sent by Southern Methodist Board to Tokyo, Japan.

Miss Merlie Little, of class of 1914, now Mrs. Hoyt Miller, is working under Southern Presbyterian Board in Lueba Congo, Bilgoe, Africa.

Miss Georgia McKay, now Mrs. John Watt, is working with Southern Presbyterian Board in Lueba Congo, Belgoe, Africa.

Miss Hannah Jewett Williams, of 1916, now Mrs. Allen Simms Lee, is teaching under the Episcopal Board in the St. Agnes School for Girls in Auking, China.

Miss Leila Burnett, of class of 1920, now Mrs. Eugene Steece, is working under the Southern Baptist Board in Shanghai, China.

should make up this special section in the Spectrum, the annual which is to be published next spring.

On November 22 ground was broken for the new dormitory which is soon to appear on the G. S. C. W. campus. The location will be just east and in line with Terrell hall adjoining Terrell Annex C with a bridge on second and third floors. The new building will be the same as Terrell Hall with Corinthian columns on the front.

The dormitory will be in the shape of capital letter I and will extend the entire length of Terrell Hall. It will be 100 ft. front and back.

Little Terrell, as this dormitory has been called by Dr. Beeson, will accommodate three hundred and forty student. All rooms will have connecting baths. On first floor there will be four parlor, a matrons room and office. On the ground floor in the rear will be two gymnasium rooms. Concrete steps will lead from top floor to the basement.

It is hoped that the college will acquire the property now occupied by the jail. If it is, a beautiful front will be made on the east facing Wilkinson Street.

Little Terrell will be one of the most beautiful and modernly equipped dormitories on the campus—and all are eagerly waiting its completion. Little Terrell will be the sixth new building erected on this campus in the last two years. These buildings are the Auditorium, class room building, high school building, grammar school building, Parks Memorial Hospital, which is being erected now, and the new dormitory.

This building has been greatly needed on the campus for a number of years. Every year hundreds of Georgia girls have been turned away because of lack of dormitory room. Up until last year, classroom space was also limited, but this was made sufficient by the completion of a building for this purpose. The faculty and classroom space is sufficiently large to accommodate the three hundred and forty girls who will occupy this new dormitory.

G. S. C. W. campus is already one of the largest and most beautiful in the state. With the erection of this beautiful building the campus will be outstanding in its completeness and beauty. The building committee reports that according to plans now the building will be ready for occupancy by the middle of September 1928.

Tea To Honor Miss

Catherine Allen

Miss Agnes Davis, Frances Cotton and Cornelia Montgomery will be lovely hostesses at a tea Thursday afternoon from four to six honoring Miss Catherine Allen, of Columbus, the newly elected president of the Sophomore class.

The color scheme and decorations are to carry out the Thanksgiving idea. A large number of guests have been invited to call during the afternoon.

THE COLONNADE

Published twice monthly by Students of the Georgia State College for Women.

Subscription Rate: 50c per year.
MARGUERITE CLARK, Editor-in-Chief
MONAH WHITLEY, Managing Editor

Caroline Cheney	Associate Editor
Kleanor Oliff	Associate Editor
Spencer Darden	Associate Editor
Helen Greene	Alumnae Editor
Mary Bohannon	Feature Editor
Mary Elliot	Exchange Editor
Agnes Poole	Business Manager
Lucile Scroggins	Business Manager
Anne Bryant	Circulation Manager
Virginia Arnold	Circulation Manager
Catherine Allen	Reporter
Josephine Williams	Reporter
Doris Watkins	Reporter
Mary Ware Martin	Reporter
Mr. W. T. Wynn	Faculty Adviser

Our Alumnae

A loyal Alumnae is the backbone of a college. Without this support a college becomes uninteresting, unsubstantial and easily undermined. An Alumnae such as ours, which boasts of thousands of members, gives a standing, a certain prestige and distinction to our college. We are proud of our Alumnae. The work they have done in our state and even in other states has been profitable and deserves much praise and credit.

Our Alumnae is loyal. Loyalty does not mean merely the giving of time and money but it implies the living up to the high ideals for which the college stands.

The first graduate of this college attended summer school here last summer and her strength and beauty of ideals were a marvel to see. She, as many of the rest, has kept and built upon the qualities of strength and fineness which had a beginning here.

For the past few weeks in chapel Dr. Beeson has been giving the history of the college. To hear of the beginning and the growth and to note the standing four college today is to view the work of great minds and foresight. Our Alumnae, with its ever ready hand, its devotion and united strength has aided in the growth, in fact, it has been one of the biggest agents in establishing our college, and making it what it is today.

Yet, with all the proudest which we display, and with all the growth we have attained, let us not lose sight of our goal. Often partial success is a cloud which obstructs from view the golden goal of success, which is service.

Let those of us who will be Alumnae soon, fall in line with the other Alumnae and remain loyal, ever serving, ever giving and ever living up to the biggest and truest ideals of our Alma Mater.

Thanksgiving Day—Its Gain

The custom of observing Thanksgiving Day is apt to be regarded by some as an old Puritan institution which a busy, industrial and commercial world has outgrown. It is true that the Thanksgiving festivities of the old New England life was an important feature of that life, one of the few joyous occasions which relieved a rather somber year. However, in reality, the festival is rooted in the distant past. It is as old as Moses and comes to us with the Divine sanction. "When thou hast eaten and art full, then thou shalt bless the Lord thy God for the good land which he hath given thee. Thou shalt remember the Lord thy God; for He it is that giveth the power to get wealth."

No note occurs more frequently throughout the Psalms than the one of Thanksgiving. It sounds forth in the very center of the great doxology, "Old Hundred," which often crowns our worship. "Enter into the gates with Thanksgiving and into his courts with praise. Be thankful unto Him and bless His name."

It is a distinct gain to cultivate a spirit of gratitude and joy, rather than one of murmuring and discontent. The man who put on magnifying glasses when he ate cherries was a philosopher. It is vastly better to magnify one's blessings than to minimize them. The causes of Thanksgiving are manifold.

James Dixon has given us the following:

And where in distant seaports,
far upon lien shores,
The starry flag waves proudly and tells of home and love—
There, too, the happy housewife brings forth her choicest stores
And hymns of praise are sung to
The good Lord above.

Appreciation

Thanksgiving and appreciation are so closely allied that one can hardly be separated from the other. This is Appreciation Week and it is only fitting that we show our appreciation of our many opportunities in every way possible. We can do this, first, by smiling. A smile that you give may not mean so much to you, but consider what it can do to the other fellow. Secondly, talk appreciation! Boost your college. Boosting is a way of talking appreciation. The more you boost the more you will appreciate.

Thirdly, act your appreciation. Show appreciation for the Y by being on the Vesper program. Appreciate chapel exercises by attention and quietness. Appreciate classes by voicing opinions and suggestions. Appreciate your college paper by subscribing and writing for it.

Mae Drew, '27 is doing grammar grade work at Roanoke, Ala.

Burrelle Chappell, '27 is teaching at Roanoke, Ala.

Beniah Floyd, '27 is teaching at Porterdale, Ga.

Mae Cole, '27, is teaching at Sargent, Ga.

Doris Collier, '27, is doing grade work at Barnesville, Ga.

Estelle Bobeman, 1907, is in charge of the Y. W. C. A. Cafeteria work in Richmond, Va.

Allie Myrick, 1925, is Mrs. E. T. Bowdon, Fort Benning, Columbus, Ga.

Mary Blount Andrews, 1916, is Mrs. J. B. Greene, of Atlanta.

Mary Antoinette Bradford, 1916, is Mrs. H. K. Rickenbacker of Pelham, Ga.

Leila Bruce, 1916, is teaching in Fulton High School, Atlanta.

Sara Comfort, 1915, is now living in Atlanta, and a live member of the Alumnae Club.

Mary Alice Dupree, 1918, is now Mrs. F. H. Tigner of Greenville, Ga.

Cleo Thayer, '27, is teaching in the grammar grades of the public schools in Sanford, Fla.

Mary Emily Creech, 1918, is now Mrs. G. B. Moore of Sparta, Ga.

Margaret Hall, 1918, is now Mrs. Lebron Ard of Washington, D. C.

Catherine Beeson, 1921, is now Mrs. Sam P. Wright of Staunton, Va.

Mary Candler, 1921, is now Mrs. Clement M. Eyer, of Johnson City, Tenn.

Dorothy Campbell, 1921, is now Mrs. J. Lamar Smith, of Miami, Fla.

Foye Mosley, '27, is teaching in the rural schools near Chattanooga, Tenn.

Aileen Lansdell, '27, is doing grammar grade teaching Tignall, Ga.

Vivian Reeves, '27, is doing grammar grade teaching in Metter, Ga.

Ethel Baker, '27, is teaching in the grammar grades of the public school in Morrow, Ga.

Elizabeth Buchan, '27, is teaching the first grade in the public school in Pavo, Ga.

Elizabeth Denario, '27, is teaching first grade in the public school at Pearson, Ga.

Mattie Lou Estes, '27, is teaching in the Colonokee School near Bluffton, Ga.

Marion Tye, '26, is returning to her home after an operation for appendicitis. She is a teacher in the grammar grades of Devereux, Ga.

Lucy Carmichael, 1921, is Mrs. Mark Lawrence of Edgetfield, N. C.

Lucile Roark, 1921, is Mrs. R. Y. Dean of Martin, Ga.

Evelyn Shewmake, 1921, is Mrs. Oscar Bowden McKinley, of Bradenton, Fla.

Bessie Smith, 1921, is Mrs. J. D. Eberhart of Oakwood, Ga.

Clara E. Dean, 1922, is doing dietetic work in Piedmont Sanitarium, Atlanta, Ga.

Eloise Greene, B. S. 1924, is teaching biology in Joe Brown Junior High School, Atlanta.

Berna Jarrard, B. S. '23 is teaching home economics in William A. Bass Junior High School, Atlanta, Ga.

Charlie Ina Mitcham, B. S. '24, is now Mrs. Roger Saunders of Atlanta, Ga.

Corisue Anthony, A. B. '25, is Mrs. Branson James of Atlanta.

Mary Joyce Banks, B. S. '26, is Mrs. William Ireland of Milledgeville, Ga.

Marianne Moore, B. S. '24, now Mrs. D. W. Heidecker, is teaching in Joe Brown Junior High School, Atlanta, Ga.

Myrtle O'Neil, B. S. '24, is teaching health science in Joe Brown Junior, Atlanta.

Gertrude Moseley, B. S. '27, is teaching in rural schools near Chattanooga, Tenn.

Rosa Hern, B. S. '25, is teaching in Hamburg, S. C.

Ruth Vaughan, '27, is a critic teacher in the State Normal School, Boone, N. C.

Louise Cason, A. B. '26 is teaching in the high school at Dudley, Ga.

Mary Bobo, '27, is teaching in the grammar grades of Rome, Ga.

Friendship

"Give me the love of Friends, and I Shall not complain of cloudy sky—
Or, little dreams that fade and die.
Give me the clay of one firm hand
The lips that say "I understand"
And I shall walk on holy land.
For fame and fortune burdens bring
And Winter takes the rose of Spring
But Friendship is a God-like thing."
—Edited by Mrs. Nelle Womack Hines.

THE IDEA OF APPRECIATION WEEK.

N. W. HINES.
This is not meant to be a week of activity, except as it is necessary to keep alive and spread the idea until it is well established. It centers around Thanksgiving Day, and as this season of all times seems to be the most fitting to take mental stock of ourselves to think of what we have; to dwell upon the good things that have come our way; to touch

Y. W. C. A.

And we who would serve the king
And loyally Him obey
In the consecrate silence know
That the challenge still holds to-day.

In the silence of our hearts those of us who follow the Blue Triangle feel a thankfulness that today His challenge still holds. We would realize anew that his love binds us together. Though our search for the Holy Grail has lead us long different roads, our hearts have had the same ultimate goal.

We are grateful because we realize that God is a God of love. We know, more surely, the depth, the wisdomness and the magnetic power of the love of Jesus. We would in a great and overflowing silence hear Him say, "And I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men unto him." Our hearts are hushed in adoration.

We are thankful that with a keener knowledge of Jesus we broaden our horizon. We realize that we are not students set apart, but are rather a tiny portion of those people the world over who turn to Jesus as the source of all power and life.

Then we are thankful that as year go on we may give to new students a richness of heritage that we gained through following the Blue Triangle. We would pass on the knowledge of Him who long ago said: "I am come that ye might have life, and that ye might have it more abundantly."

G. S. C. W. is fortunate in having as her guest Miss Charlotte Jackson, Student Secretary of Presbyterian Church Southern Board. She will deliver messages to various groups on the campus this weekend.

A Thanksgiving Day Song

I'm thankful this Thanksgiving Day
That I am living anyway.
And he's a mortal most forlorn
Who isn't thankful he is born;
For only think what I had missed
Had I not happened to exist!
There are days of rain,
And days of pain
And days of muck and strife;
But the luckiest day for a man, I say,
Is the first day of his life.
I'm thankful this Thanksgiving Day
That I am living, anyway.
—FOSS.

"The Human Touch"

"Tis the human touch in this world
that counts
The touch of your hand and mine,
That means far more to the fainting heart
Than shelter or bread or wine;
For shelter is gone when the night is o'er
And bread lasts only a day,
But the touch of the hand and the sound of the voice
Sing in the soul away."
—Edited by Mrs. Nelle Womack Hines.

upon how we might feel if fate had been unkind; to put ourselves in the mood of appreciation and thus be ready on that day set apart for Thanks, to go to His House and enter into the service with hearts that "Praise God from whom all blessings flow."

FEATURE PAGE

Mary Bohannon, Editor

Thanksgiving

Every body knows that the last Thursday in November is declared to be a national holiday, Thanksgiving, and we celebrate it accordingly with foot ball games and other peppy out door sports.

But what did Thanksgiving day mean to our Pilgrim fathers who settled the bleak New England coast? Their Thanksgiving day was really a day of thanksgiving. They met with their Indian neighbors to thank their God for his goodness and his blessings, and for his guiding hand which had shown them how to live in this new and strange land.

What does Thanksgiving day mean here on our campus? It means a day of no classes, a G. M. C. foot ball game, a turkey dinner, visitors, and last but not least, we know Christmas can't be over three weeks off.

Mind you Freshman—be careful or you will have to pick a huge old turkey gobbler—all Freshmen have to—that is if they boast of the fact that they can't be made do it—just wait until some high and mighty Sophomore happens along—I! Then you will mean your plight!

Dinner time! Did you ever see such an array?? Tables decorated in many different ways. Some of them represent the landing of the Pilgrims—others have so many turkeys they remind of the old days when wild turkeys roamed about. Wouldn't that be nice now? If such was the case, can't you just picture the entire male group of the faculty headed by Dr. Beeson armed with all sorts of shooting irons departing on a great hunting expedition to Nesbit Woods.

Other tables have autumn leaves, pumpkins and things no one but G. S. C. W. girls could ever think of. This is Thanksgiving day spent at G. S. C. W. Though we seem gay and thoughtless, deep down in the hearts of every one of us is a feeling of thanks giving to God, for that wonderful mother and daddy we have back home who are betting on us to come through on top, and also for the sacrifices they are making in order to prepare us that we may be ready to open the door when opportunity knocks.

A detour is the longest distance between two points.
—High Light.

Frosh (crying): "Mother, I can't enter college. The dean said I was too young."

Mother (hysterically): "Is that all they said, darling?"

Frosh: "Yes, but mother, what does 'mentally' mean—the dean said that too?"

The Genesis of The G. S. C. W. Faculty

Who are the oldest faculty members of our college?

The Georgia State College for Women was founded in 1891. On the faculty today are persons who were among the first instructors of the college.

In 1893, Miss Alice Napier came to the college and accepted the position as principal of the Sub-Freshmen class.

Mrs. Martin, matron of Terrell Annex A dormitory, and Mrs. Williams teacher of wood work were both students in Miss Napier's class.

Mansion and Mansion Annex were the only dormitories on the campus when Miss Napier first became an instructor in the college. A large number of students lived in approved boarding houses, and were under college regulations. Since that time, Miss Napier has seen the erection of every other building on the campus. In 1906, she was made professor of Mathematics, and has remained to the present time, instructor of the same subject.

Dr. J. L. Beeson, now acting president of the college came to our institution in the fall of 1897 and became professor of Natural Sciences and later, professor of Chemistry. In 1909, Dr. Beeson was made vice-president of the college. Next in 1925 he became Dean of the college of Arts and Sciences, and today, he is acting president of the college.

Miss Kate Thrash has been associated with the business department of the college since 1901.

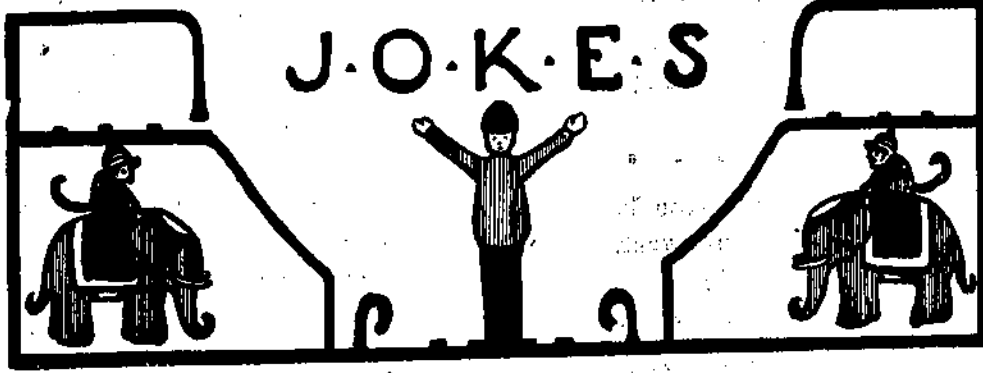

Sparks From The Psychology Anvil

- Pointers:
1. Knowledge is the first step in method.
 2. Method is the shell—information is the kernel.
 3. Plan each day's work.
 4. Seek advice from those in authority—they may know.
 5. More taffy and less epitaphy.
 6. Be polite to children and politeness in return.
 7. Avoid sarcasm and ridicule.
 8. Remember a barking dog never bites.
 9. Don't make believe you examine papers when you don't. Either don't have the examination or acknowledge that you did not look over the papers.

THANKSGIVIN' IN KENTUCKY.

It's Thanksgivin' in Kentucky
And the crops are gathered in
And the meat is in the storehouse
And the corn is in the bin,
And the apple-house is bustin'
And the barn is full of hay,
And the folks are gettin' ready
Fer a big Thanksgivin' Day.

It's Thanksgivin' in Kentucky
And the gobbles' in the pen,
And there's somethin' mighty nervous
'Bout the actions of the hen
And my grandma's mixin' stuffin'
And my grandpa's got the ax
And I reckon Mister Gobbler
Is about to face the facts.
—Riley Scott.

JOKES

"Hey, Wat's the red light for?"
"That's a fire exit, stupid."
"What do you use it for?"
"It's where they put the fire out, ole urse."—Stevens Stone Mill.

GET A FORD!

I gaze across the street so wide,
I start, I dart, I squirm, I glide,
I take my chances, oh, so slim—
I trust to eye and nerve and limb;
I scoot to right, I gallop through,
I'm here and there, I'm lost to view.
My life, I know, hangs to the toss,
Another plunge—I am across!
Oh, give me pity, if you can I'm just a poor
pe-des-tri-an.

—T. R. in the Boston Transcript.

Distressed Prof.—Why don't you answer me
Frosh—I did shake my head.
D. P.—Well, do you expect me to hear it rattle up here?—Burr.
A conductor fears no one—he tells them all where to get off.
—High Light.

LONGIN' FOR YOU

Longin' dearest, jest for you.
Wondering—don't know what to do.
No one near me acts quite right,
Still love you, with all my might.
Ain't no use for days so bright,
Less'n I'm with you.

EXCHANGE

"It's all up with me," said the umbrella.
"How sew?" said the needle.
"It was this weigh," said the scales.
"Shut up," retorted the umbrella.
"Knit," replied the yarn.
"Oh, come off," said the button.
"Hit him," said the hammer.
"I'll stand by you," said the candel.
"You can count on me," said the slate.

"Take that," said the pill.
"It's all over now," said the ceiling.
"I'll shut up hereafter," said the umbrella.—Exchange.

Under the laws of this country a man is innocent until he is proved guilty. Then he is usually insane.—Dallas News.

A little girl about four years old, who was soon tired of the conversation, curled up in the large chair with her kitten. Soon the cat was purring very low and it brought forth this remark:
"You're parking now—why under the sun don't you switch off your engine?"—Kay-Dee.

An efficiency expert is a man who knows more and more about less and less.

Brightest Sunday ever knew.
Sunniest—and I've seen a few.
Might as well be rainin' lakes,
Can't get by with these here fakes.
When my heart just aches and aches.
Longin' so for you.
—Anita Ruth Jackson, Side Lines.

Mr. Ford—"Do you use tooth paste?"
Mr. Fortson—"Gracious no! None of my teeth are loose."

"Why are your socks on wrong side out Bob?"
"My feet got hot, so I turned the hose on 'em."

Chemistry Prof: "First I'll take some ether, then some carbolic acid—"
Class: "Perfect!"

Young Professor: "Are you doing anything on Sunday evening, Miss Blank?"
Coed (hopefully): "No, not a thing."

Young Professor: "Then try to get to class on time Monday morning, please."

New: "Do you know anything about the Knights of Columbus?"
Ark: "No, never have time to go to Columbus. My studies keep me busy."

Quack Doctor: "I've been selling these pills for ten years and have never heard a word of complaint. Now what does that prove?"
Voice in crowd: "That dead men tell no tales!"—High Light.

Advice to Teachers
Don't give up hope; it takes some circuses six years to train a donkey
—High Light.

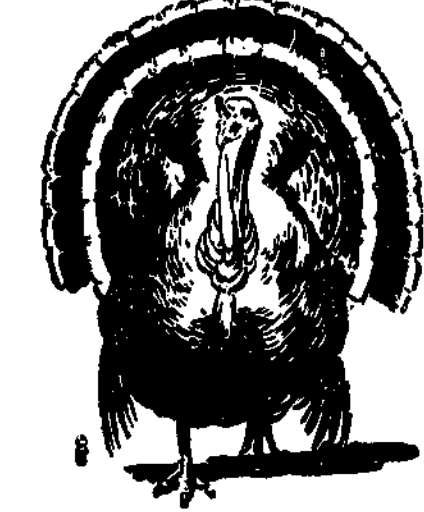

Great minds run in the same path; so do little pigs.
A successful author is one who makes glaring mistakes in grammar, and thereby makes good usage.—High Light.

A little fellow left in charge of his tiny brother called out: "Mother, won't you please speak to baby He's sitting on the flypaper and there's a lot of flies waiting to get on."—The Open Road.

Professor's wife—A truck ran over your best straw hat!
Absent-Minded Prof.—Was I wearing it?

A Mouthful

The trouble with modern college life is that there is too much life and not enough college.—Side Lines.

Growth of Our Campus

In 1891 the Georgia Normal and Industrial college was established here in Milledgeville. This was the third school of its kind established in the United States and it was then the work of the Governor. Mr. W. Y. Atkinson, a Newnan man, and others that this school was begun.

When the college opened the only dormitory was Mansion. The city of Milledgeville issued bonds and built the annex. Some of the girls lived in approved boarding houses about in town.

Dr. J. Harris Chappell was president at that time. Later Atkinson hall and the old main building that burned in 1924 were built. These buildings added greatly to the campus.

Next Chappell hall was built. Then Terrell, Parks, Ennis and Dr. Parks built Terrell Annexes A, B, and C. The class room buildings and the auditorium were completed by Dr. Parks in 1927.

Dr. Parks was the master builder. To him we owe our beautiful campus with its great buildings of simple lines and beauty. The rows of graceful stately columns seen on our campus carry his silent message of "Build on to us."

To the memory of our master Builder who was snatched away from us such a short time ago, there is being erected the Parks Memorial Hospital. This building is growing rapidly and will easily be completed by June.

A hospital is the best thing that could be dedicated to him whom we loved and honored for he was never happier that when he was serving others and giving them joy and happiness.

In spite of the many and well equipped dormitories here on our campus, we need more—And more we are going to have. There is to be a new dormitory built on the same style as Terrell just below Terrell by the jail. This new dormitory which is to be modern and well equipped in every way is to be completed by September 1928. This added room will allow many more girls to come to this college which is known and noted not only in Georgia but also in many of the surrounding states.

It is easy to contrast the G. N. & I. C. of 1891 to the G. S. C. W. of 1927. We can see how it has grown and it is quite easy to tell its future. As it has grown in the past it will continue to grow in the future turning out young women well fitted to enter into the work of teaching young America.

To the men and women who established this school, to Dr. Chappell, Dr. Parks and to Dr. Beeson, our present president, we owe much for the success we obtain in life.

Miss Goodson's Bible Study Class Goes on Hike

On Monday afternoon, November 21, a large group of girls, composed of the members of Miss Goodson's Bible Study Class, went on a hike about a mile from town.

Having assembled in the "Y" room with everything in readiness, the girls left about four o'clock and reached their destination a short time later for the air was chilly and a brisk walk only added to their comfort.

The first thing they did was to select a place for the fire. When this was done, several began gathering wood. Some of the "old-time" scouts built two good fires and the real fun began. Needless to say, this was the cooking which was done over the open fire as in primitive days. Everybody helped in some way so the task was soon completed and the result was a delicious meal which was set on the tables made of paper laid flat on the ground.

The menu consisted of: scrambled eggs on toast with bacon, cheese on toast, coffee and grapes. It must have made a hit with the guests for "actions speak louder than words" and not a crumb was left.

As twilight neared, the girls cleared the spot where they had camped temporarily packed the utensils and started homeward. As they separated at the different dormitories, each girl expressed the thought then placed it in the back of her head for future reference, that she had had a most delightful time. Those who were unable to go were missed and also missed one of the most enjoyable of the class outings.

Those present were: Miss Goodson, Clio Adcock, Edith Adkins, Ellen Ansley, Louise Bowles, Jessie Campbell, Maye Chandler, Margaret Cayne, Grace Gregg, Alvaretta Kenan, Katharine Moore, Clarie Nickles, Marilyn Parrish, Frances Reeves, Mildred Tennille, Gladis Thornton, Winnie Toole, Marion White and Gertrude Young.

Inaugural Party

Cat Allen, newly-elected president of the Sophomore Class, was given a surprise party Sunday night by "the gang."

The room was suitably decorated with the good old black and gold, the colors of the class. Various slogans such as "I do not choose to run in 1928" and "We will follow in her foot steps" (hanging over her shoe) decorated the walls.

A new and beautiful skirt to be worn on the day when the class receives its privileges was presented to the honor guest. A mock inauguration was a very amusing feature of the evening. Cat contests were also enjoyed.

Tea, sandwiches, cake and Cat (not pressed kitty) were enjoyed by the guests.

Those present were: Sophomores Cat Allen, "Freshman" O'Neal, Mildred George, "Ankie" Brooks, Julia Reese, Bee Howard, "Baby" Vaughan, Addie Atwood, Elise DeJarnette, Virginia Pinkerton, Frances Cotton, Agnes Davis, "Yna" Hall, Dot Colquitt, Frances Morgan, Frances Phillips; honorary-sophomores "Grandma" Taylor, "Hoss" Hamby, "Sister" Kittles.

English Sophomore Meet

The third meeting of the English Sophomores has been planned to be held at English Senior Hill Nov. 27. This is to be the last before the holidays and the program is to be a

SOCIAL NEWS

Mrs. E. M. Atwood of Darlen was the guest of her daughter Addie last Sunday.

Little Miss Corine Tucker of Sanderville was the week-end guest of her sister Marie.

Mr. and Mrs. Youmans and Mr. Winfred Youmans were the guests on Sunday of their daughter and sister Miss Sypper Youmans.

Miss Frances Wattersons of Eatonton spent Sunday with the Eatonton girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Tucker spent Sunday with their daughter Marie.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Carnes of Monroe spent Sunday with their daughter DeVera.

Miss Virginia Lanier was the guest of her sisters Frances and Elizabeth last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Fordham, of Dublin spent Sunday with their daughter Frances.

Miss Christine Wynn had as her guests Sunday her mother and father of Chester, Ga.

Mrs. W. L. DeJarnette of Albany, spent Thursday night with her daughter Elise.

Miss Sara DeJarnette of Johnston, S. C., stopped on her way to Eatonton to visit her sister Elise.

Miss Mildred O'Neal had as her guest her mother of Greenville, Ga., last Sunday.

Mrs. John West Sheffield of Americus was the guest of her sister Miss Claudia Cheeves last Saturday.

Miss Estelle Kinney was the week-end guest of Miss Emily Shepard.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Y. Grant of Rentz spent Sunday with their daughter Marjorie.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Whitworth and daughter Frances spent Sunday with their daughter and sister Juanita.

Miss Gladys Coleman had as her guests Sunday, her mother and father Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Coleman of Rentz.

Miss Clyde Lowry of Adrian spent Saturday with Miss Gladys Coleman.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Clements of Moultrie and Miss Myra Clements spent Sunday with Miss Julia Clements.

Christmas entertainment. Dorothy Colquitt is in charge of the program and with the aid of the social committee has planned to have Santa Claus visit The Old Woman who lived in the shoe. The Old Woman tells her children of Santa Claus and recites "The Night Before Christmas." The children of the Old Woman are members of the club who represent members of the club who represent Lucy Lockett, Mary, Mary Inite Con- trary, Mary had a Little Lamb, Hop.

Miss Evelyn Anderson of Albany, spent Thanksgiving with Miss Dot Prevatte.

Miss Kathryn Smith of Albany, spent Thanksgiving with Miss Katherine Robinson.

Mrs. L. E. Scott of Albany, spent Thanksgiving with her sister Miss Dot Prevatte.

Miss Mary Moss of Sandersville, spent Thanksgiving with her sister Miss Bertie Cross.

Miss Arminia Culpepper of Moultrie was the guest of Miss Florence Crow Sunday.

Miss Clio Aycock has as her guests Sunday her mother and father of Newnan.

Miss Sara Harp of Inman, had as her guests Sunday her mother and father Mr. and Mrs. W. E. M. Harp.

Miss Ethel Chambers of Atlanta, a former G. S. C. W. girl, spent Thanksgiving with Miss Edna Burke.

Miss Myra Fletcher had as her guests Sunday her parents.

Miss Ida Mae Harp of Inman, spent Sunday with her sister Miss Sara Harp.

Miss Camilla Hutchinson had as her guest this week-end Miss Carolyn McHan of Newnan.

Mrs. W. I. Maeder of Sparta, spent Sunday with her daughter, Miss Edith Maeder.

Miss Flora Sims had as her guest last week-end her mother of West Point.

Miss Estelle Walker a student at Wesleyan spent Sunday with Miss Minnie Stokes.

Miss Louise Lancaster of West Point spent Thanksgiving with Misses Macey Webb and Mardelle Osborne.

Miss Carolyn Hoffman, of Newnan, the week-end guest of Miss Camilla Hutchinson, was honor guest at a delightful feast given Sunday evening by the "Newans." The guest were entertained by the stump speeches of the members, who were candidates for the residence; each candidate demonstrated her chief accomplishment. After these features, a delicious salad course was served. Besides the honoree, those present were: Mardelle Osborne, Macey Webb, Flora Sims, Spencer Darden, Mildred Merrell, Aughtry Oliver, Elizabeth Rapé, Eugenia Scroggin, Sally Bryant, Mary Bohannon, and Camilla Hutchinson.

Tommy Tucker, Simple Simson, Jack and Jill, Little Miss Muffett, and Jack-ee-Nimble. Santa Claus really visits the children bringing each a present that is characteristic of the nursery rhymes.

"Though you belong to somebody else, tonight you belong to me," murmured the youth, smoothing the wrinkles out of the Tax-Bucknell Belle Hop.

Willing Workers Organize

The Bible Study class of Miss Lucile Scroggins has selected "Willing Workers" as the name for the class. "All for Christ" as the motto, and gold and white as colors.

The following officers and committees have been elected: President, Catherine Stead, vice-president, Sara Thompson, Secretary Beulah Underwood, Treasurer, Helen Johnson.

The committee chairmen are: Social Committee, Frances Hummel; Program Committee, Louise McKinney; Membership Committee, Cornelia Veal and Louise Harris.

The class is divided into two sections with Sara Thompson as leader of the gold division and Catherine Stead as leader of the white division. Each division is striving to gain the most points. The division having the least number of points will have to entertain the winning side.

The division with their leaders are: Gold: Sara Thompson leader, Louise McKinney, Gertrude Cooper, Beulah Underwood, Wilma Stewart, Cornelia Veal, Helen Arnall, Martha Gill.

White: Catherine Stead leader, Maude Stewart, Evelyn Hammett, Frances Dunn, Frances Hummel, Martha Ayers, Helen Johnson, Emily Rice, Louise Harris.

French Club

The French Club held its monthly meeting Nov. 22 at the usual hour, five thirty. The meeting was presided over by the president, Eleanor Ennis, and then turned over to Catherine Butts who had charge of the program. The program was exceptionally interesting, made so by the delightful songs and games which were sung and played in the French language and the French manner.

Visitors Are Complimented

Misses Edna Percy, Margaret Mae Crowley and Frances Percy, of Dalton, and Miss Margaret Yarbrough, of Milledgeville, were guests of honor at a beautiful tea, Sunday afternoon.

The "Round Room" of Terrell Hall was artistically decorated in coral vine, chrysanthemums, and dahlias yellow and green forming the color scheme.

Besides the guests of honor, those in the receiving line were Misses Fanny McLellan, Inez McArthur, Frances Hubbs, Mary McDonald, Eleanor McLellan, and Helen Leggett. Punch and cakes were served by Misses Lois McWilliams and Marie Hancock.

FRESHMAN COUNCIL TAKES DAILY MORNING HIKE

In spite of the cold a group of girls were seen or rather heard gathering under the G. S. C. W. Sign Monday morning to begin their first hike together—to Nesbit woods.

The girls of Freshman council enjoyed the delicious bacon, eggs and cheese cooked over an open fire, and every G. S. C. girl knows the joy of a cup of coffee round the fire in Nesbit Woods. They following girls made up the jolly party.

Helen Arnall, Loraine Batson, "Bill" Brown, Mildred Brinkley, My Chandler, "Sis" Cheeves, Nan Crawford, Margaret Cunningham, Nora Ethel English, Mrtha Gill, Grace Gregg, Sally Hall, Nan Hamby, "Ka" Hatcher, Ruth Henderson, Anne Hicks, "Kat" Jones, Leo Jordan, Ruby Kettles, Mary Kate Lang, Louise owo, "Kitty" Melton, Louise McKinney, "Carnelia" Montgomery, "Kat" Robinson, Carolyn Russell, Carolyn Scott, Carolyn Selmar, Elizabeth Stewart, Lucile Scroggin, Grace Taylor, Misses Goodson, Burch and Jackson.

BELL GROCERY CO.

Headquarters for "Hikes." We know what you want. We have everything necessary for your comfort and convenience when you go—call us.

263 -- Phones -- 498

Its Quality Service and Price

BELL GROCERY CO.

The term love is used in tennis because of the net. HURRY BACK is used at Fraley's because they are the best yet.

Welcome Old Girls

FRALEY'S PHARMACY

THANKSGIVING TIME

Here's thanks to those who have come and gone, and here is thanks to those who are with us now, and it is always our pleasure to serve and thank you at each Thanksgiving time.

CHANDLER BROS. GROCERY CO.

Phone your orders to 260-280

Growth of Appreciation Week

In November 1925 the idea of Appreciation Week was first launched in Milledgeville, and sponsored by the Woman's Club. The originator, Mrs. Nelle Womack Hines, acted as chairman of the Week, and in the absence of the president of the club, Miss Floride Allen, presided as toast-mistress at An Appreciation Luncheon given in honor of the heads of all women's working organizations, and of Mrs. W. B. Smith of Tennille, the newly elected president of the Tenth District. At the luncheon, short talks were made—in place of toasts—and the plan or work of each organization was outlined. Words of encouragement for the work of the future were spoken and the president of each organization introduced. It was practically a Baldwin County Federation meeting for all these organizations are members of that federation.

A special edition of "The Times" a Milledgeville paper, was gotten out a page devoted to each of the days to be observed, the articles written by various people prominent in many walks of life. But the main idea to which the work of the women was devoted was to get everybody to go to the Thanksgiving Service, and a chain phone message was started the day before Thanksgiving—each pledge to phone ten others. There was a record breaking crowd at the service. All the churches made mention of the Week and asked for observance.

The second year-1926—the Idea of Appreciation Week had been adopted by the Tenth District Federation of Clubs—and Mrs. Hines was appointed by President Mrs. W. B. Smith to act as chairman. Each club in the Tenth was communicated with and practically all observed the Week in some way. In the county seat of ten of the counties, the Mayor issued a proclamation for the Week. Six of the District presidents of the State Federation wrote to Mrs. Hines, stating that they would like the work to be carried on in their districts.

A special edition of a local Paper "The Times" was edited, in it being words of commendation from Mrs. A. P. Brantley, State President of Women's Federated Clubs, Mrs. Herbert Franklin, head of the State D. A. R.; Mrs. Oscar McKenzie president of the U. D. C.; Mrs. P. H. Jeter of the P. T. A.; Mrs. W. P. Bailey of the Music Federation; Miss Emily Woodward now head of the State Press Association; Mrs. W. B. Smith of Tennille, Tenth District President; Mrs. R. K. Rambo president of the Atlanta City Federation; Mrs. Alonzo Richardson, state director for Women's Federation; Professor Pound, state school supervisor.

Appreciation cards bearing the outline of the week—telling of the origin, and expressing the hope that the idea might become nation-wide some day, were sent out by various organizations of the town and county. The Baldwin County Federation sent material to every school in the county and the children had a part in the observance of the week.

Many editorials from the various state papers was the result of the interest taken, and the idea of the Appreciation Week was thought a practical as well as a worthy one. Many of the clubs in the district planned to have special editions of their home papers—Mrs. Hines received a copy of one from Sandersville Woman's Club, Mrs. Lang, president—which was a credit to any organization.

During the past month inquiries

Plays To Be Presented By Classes During December

FRESHMEN PLAY

The Freshmen Class will present "Spreading the News," a one act play by Lady Gregory, on December 1st. It is an Irish Comedy and was probably suggested by the game called "Gossip," in which the first player whispers a bit of news to the next, he in turn whispers it to the next and so on down the line until the last player is reached. He uses and tells what he has heard and compares it with the news started by the first player.

Dr. Hunter is coaching the play. Those taking parts are: Grace Gregg, Loraine Batson, Kathleen Hatcher, Margaret Cunningham, Caroline Selman, Anne Hicks, Sally Proctor, Katherine Jones.

"LAND OF HEART'S DESIRE" PRESENTED BY JUNIORS AND SENIORS

An Irish tragedy, the "Land of Heart's Desire" is to be presented by the Juniors and Seniors in competition with the Freshmen and Sophomores. It is a lovely story of a young girl who could not adjust herself to life, and at last is delivered by kind fairies who take her soul and leave her body on earth. The prayers and entreaties of the loss are at first useless it seems, but at last she received her "heart's desire."

The cast is very capable and are carefully chosen. The parts are taken by Harlowe Thompson, Marguerite Clark, Marguerite Jackson, Edith Bryan, and Eleanor Ennis. The play is charming and the cast excellent—all the Seniors and Juniors are behind it pushing hard, so the fight will be interesting. Who will win? "That is the question."

SOPHMORE PLAY

Great enthusiasm is displayed by the Sophomores over the play being presented by Miss Katherine Scott. It is to be "Beauty and the Beast" and is a story of the French Revolution. A brave French lad returns from safety in England to bring his sister and fiancée back across the channel. A crafty spy of the masses follows them and so the story goes. The cast is one of great excellence, and is working quite hard on the play. Dorothy Colquitt is the French detective and outwits Sherlock Holmes. Dorothy Jay is the loyal sister of Louis, Mary Elliott, a brave French aristocrat. Beautiful, vain and egotistical is Mary Bohannon, fiancée of Louis. "Cat" Allen, resplendent in the uniform of the sergeant starts thru the play, proudly aware of the shining work at her side. Big, fit and official!

This is a benefit performance for "Y. W.", and is being presented on a competition basis. There will be outsiders to judge the play and give their verdict. The selling of tickets is also competition. Girls in each dormitory are trying to outsell each other. "Come on Sophs, let's put it over and win!"

have been received from many clubs over the state asking that material be sent them so that they might start the observance of this Week in their county.

The Baldwin County Federation will sponsor the Week in its home county this year, as it did last year, and the plan for observance is about the same. In all the churches on Sunday Nov. 20th, the Week will be announced and some part of the service be given to observance of the day.—Edited by Mrs. Nelle Womack Hines.

Birdseye View of Films Shown At G. S. C. W.

The students of G. S. C. W. are exceptionally fortunate in having a program of interesting and worthwhile entertainments planned for their pleasure this year. These entertainments are not only of a superior quality but are offered at such low prices that every person can attend.

Especially varied and enjoyable is the program of pictures that is being given. This line of entertainments, one of the most popular on the campus, includes all types of good films from Pathe News and historical pictures to extremely amusing comedies. Among the pictures which have already been shown are "The Black Pirate" and "Thief of Bagdad" featuring Douglas Fairbanks, "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall" with Mary Pickford, "The Winning of Barbara Worth" starring Vilma Banky, "Steel Preferred" with William Boyd, "Prince of Head Waters" with Adolphe Menjou, "His Dog," "Stella Dallas," "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary," Pathe News and "The Frontier Woman." Of these "The Frontier Woman," produced by the Yale University Press, a film which recreates the settlement of Watauga in the Tennessee mountains portraying the sacrifices of the women of the frontier and the part they played in the making of our nation, and Pathe News are the most instructional.

"The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary" the most laughable. On the list of pictures that are to be shown in the future are "Sparrows" and Little Annie Rooney starring Mary Pickford, "Dan 2, Son of Zorro" and "Robin Hood" with Douglas Fairbanks, "The Beloved Rogue" with John Barrymore Lionel Barrymore in "The Belt," "The Wizard of Oz" with Larry Semon, "Sweet Adeline" with Charles Ray, "Dixie" a story of the civil war, "The Yankee Clipper," "The Country Doctor," "No Control," and others. It is hoped that "Macbeth" also can be procured.

Judging from the pictures which have already been shown, everyone feels that there is a treat in store and is looking forward with much pleasure to those still to come. The untiring efforts and interest of Mr. Thaxton, who is in charge of the picture project, are greatly appreciated. Thanks are due also to Miss Jaunita Huff and Mary George whose music adds much to the enjoyment of the pictures.

On Saturday night the History Club presented a two act play, "Miss Mollie," which was enjoyed by the members of the student body and faculty of G. S. C. W.

The cast was composed of the following characters: "Mollie," Josephine Proctor, Reginald Peters, Helen Green, Anne Peters, Dorothy Thaxton, "Sissy" Saunders, Cleo Jenkins, Julian Hewett, Frances Burton, Lady Elucia, Evelyn Owens, Percy White, Eudora McCraney, Joe, Mary Fort.

It was presented to the audience in a most pleasing manner by Miss Mollie Whitely. Between the first and second acts some of the members of the History Club added much enjoyment to the program by rendering a vocal selection.

The play was one of the most pleasing ever presented on the campus. It was given at Summer School and was so well received that the request for a second performance was made.

G. S. C. W. GIRLS ALWAYS PATRONIZE OUR

ADVERTISERS

MILLEDGEVILLE-MACON BUS LINE

Four Round trips Daily and Sunday

Lv. Macon 7:45 a. m. 1:00 p. m. 3:00 p. m. 5:15 p. m.
Lv. Milledgeville 9:30 a. m. 12:20 p. m. 3:00 p. m. 5:20 p. m.

Running Time One Hour and Thirty Minutes

Coaches make connections in Macon for Atlanta and all points south.

Coaches make connections in Augusta for Greenville, S. C., and all points north.

TENNILLE BROS.

Phone 351

Fountain pens are no longer luxuries, but necessities—Parker pens are best!

Any color, any size, any type. You can get them at

BOONE'S PHARMACY

G. S. C. W. Alumnae or our Alumnae Too.

G. S. C. W. girls we have for you new Sattin and Matallic Hats, Pohlson Gifts, Novelty Handkerchiefs.

MISS LENI MOORE

"The Hat Shoppe"

Remember the Cakes at Benson's Bakery?

They still bake the best in town. Visit Benson's while back at Milledgeville. "Old girls are always welcome."

BENSON'S BAKERY

"LEE'S FOR LESS"

Ladies' Ready-to-Wear, Shoes, Jay De Kay Hose.

LEE'S DEPARTMENT STORES

Milledgeville, Ga.

You're only young once. But if you work it right, once is enough. If you'll let us serve you once—you'll become a steady customer.

FRALEY'S PHARMACY

LON CHENEY
In
"MOCKERY"
COLONIAL THEATER
Thursday November 24th.

For the thirty sixth time we welcome the Alumnae back to your Alma Mater, G. S. C. W., the greatest girls school in the South.

R. H. WOOTTEN'S

The Milledgeville Banking Company welcomes the Alumnae and wishes to extend to the G. S. C. W. girls, old and new, their best wishes for a happy Thanksgiving.

MILLEDGEVILLE BANKING CO.

We welcome you back to G. S. C. W. and Milledgeville.

Visit

CITY BAKERY

To the Alumnae and to all G. S. C. W. girls. We wish you a happy Thanksgiving—

Stop by and see us.

CHANDLERS VARIETY STORE

MANY ALUMNAE UPHOLDING REPUTATION OF G. S. C. W.

(Continued from front page.)

Miss Mattie Whitfield, who was for some time Home Demonstration Agent for Colquitt County, has been appointed Demonstration Agent for Wesson Cooking Oil Company in the Southeastern States.

Miss Edith Proctor of Woodbine, is County Superintendent of Schools in Camden County.

Miss Nina Cox, who is County School Superintendent in Turner County, has begun the work of consolidating the schools of that county.

Miss Lula Bruce is head of the Home Economics Department of Fulton High in Atlanta, Ga.

Miss Joyce Henderson '27 is doing excellent work in the Home Economics Department of Fulton High in Atlanta, Ga.

Miss Ina Padgett is an assistant in Home Economics in the Teachers College of Columbia University.

Miss Annie Lou Maxwell is teaching art in the University of Illinois.

Miss Mary Godard is Supervisor of Art in the School of Columbus, Ga.

Miss Mary B. Hill, '27 is teaching Health in the State School at Statesboro, Ga.

Miss Frances Stubbs '25, is Librarian at the State Normal School at Statesboro, Ga. At the same institution, Miss Melvina Trussell, '25 is teaching Science.

Miss Sara Bagley '26, Madeline Lamkin '26, Ruth Vaughan '27 are Critic teacher at the State Normal in Bonoe, N. C.

Letter Seven

Thanksgiving

No theme would be more appropriate for this week than that of Thanksgiving Day and its significance, and then think of the usual manner in which it is celebrated. I wonder if we have caught the real significance of the occasion. We too often stress what has been rather than what is and what will be. We fail to see our responsibility to the present and especially to the future. We accept the gifts from the past without realizing that we have an obligation to pass them on not only unimpaired but improved as our contribution to future generations. What I have in mind is simply this that we may so stress the past that we forget the present and our duties to carry on.

I wonder what would happen, if in the hustle and bustle of celebration we should turn aside for meditation. My meditations have led me to ask the following question of myself:

I am thankful—

Because of health and strength to serve.

Because I live in an age of great possibilities for service.

Because by creative thought I can advance my age.

Because I can see the shortcomings of my community, my state and my nation and can strive to remedy them.

Because science and invention have lifted me to a plane never before realized by man.

Because mind is unlimited in its reach into the unknown, inhibited only by its own inertia.

Because this is the best age for me.

Because there is a God who directs the destinies of man.

Because "I am master of my fate. I am captain of My soul."

These are my Thanksgiving thoughts, what are yours?

Sincerely,

GEORGE HARRIS WEBBER,
Dean of Students.

A happy Thanksgiving to you all.

CITY GROCERY CO.

A Complete Line of Groceries

The latest thing in ladies' shoes and hose—for
G. S. C. W. girls.

FASHION SHOE SHOP

THANKSGIVING GREETINGS

Harper & Harper Shoe Repair Shop

Phone 215

THANKSGIVING HERE—

THEN CHRISTMAS—

Make your selections NOW.

WILLIAMS & RITCHIE, JEWELERS

Milledgeville, Ga.

We save your soles and heel you well—

"Sudden Service"

Phone 373

Blain's Shoe Plant and Pressing Club

Uniforms, Coats and Skirts, Silk and Wool Dresses a speciality.

BELL'S

Welcome to the Alumnae. We're always glad to have you come back home. Wishing you all a happy Thanksgiving, and many years of health and happiness.

E. E. BELL